BUILDING BELOVED COMMUNITY: Past, Present and Future

Join us in the Sanctuary for a special program honoring our Japanese American Legacy, the current impact on Muslim communities, and what action is being taken.

12:30 PM Book reading with author Karen Tei Yamashita from recently published, “Letters to Memory,” drawing from Yamashita family letters written during World War II.

2:30 PM Film showing “And Then They Came for Us” by Abby Ginzberg

3:30 PM Panel discussion exploring the constitutional & legal parallels between the mass incarceration of Japanese Americans in World War II and the current Muslim travel ban.

- ❖ Cookie Takeshita, Member of Buddhist Temple of Alameda will share a personal story about her experience in internment
- ❖ Don Tamaki, Civil Rights Attorney will speak on the StopRepeatingHistory Campaign
- ❖ Sacha Maniar, Program Coordinator, Asian Law Caucus will share the impact on Muslim Communities and what action is being taken
